EXAMINATION OF THE FYMALE GRAMMAN SCHOOL OF THE FOWARD STRAILS GRAMMAN SCHOOL OF THE FOWARD DISTRICT.—We yesterday had the pleasure of viacting the closing examination of the Fourth district female grammar school, of which Mrs. Amiden is the principal. The result of those exercises must have been every gratifying to that estimable lady, as they were to the trust the close of the kinds at Menufocturer prices, it is the same building in which the male department, which is taught by Mr. Thompson, is held. The building is about the best public school house that there is in the city.

We noticed in the room Trustees Holmead, Elis, Cassell, Wight, Wilson, Usernshle, and Morsell, Messrs. Z. and A. C. Richards. There was large number of teachers from other public school in cuty present, as well as a great number of the parents of the children, making a larger number than we have seen at any other school examinate theorogisty in all the usual branches by Messrs. Wight, Wilson, Z. and A. C. Richards, and acquitted themselves admirably. The musical exercises were very intervating. Mr. Wight also made a few remarks to the school, and was followed by Messrs. Wilson, Conant, and Z. Richards, who all expressed themselves highly pleased, and congratulated the young ladies and their teacher with having passed their axamination so triumphantly.

Yeaterday's exe. class finished the examinations of the public schools for this year. Next week the distribution of prires will take place, of which due notice will be given.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—C. R. L. Crown & Co yesterday sold some of the property belonging to the estate of the late Thomas Hughes, consisting of three small brick houses on Seventh street, between B street south and Maryland avenue, (Island.) They brought respectively $600, $550, and $850. The Purchasers were Mr. Moxmysr, Mrs. Johnson, and C. C. Anderson.

VARIETIES.—This flaturday evening a double bill at the Varieties, containing all that is sheete, refined, and beautiful. The highly attractive denseuse Milly Berthan has enshered commoderable riumphs. M'lls Geraldine and Denny Gallagher make their last appearance to-night. These are artistes of unquestionable ability; and so doubt their friends will raily round them to winese their last appearance. On Monday night a grandbill, on which escasion the great Ethiopian artists Just Budworth will appear.

CANTERDURY HALL.—Mo dramatic piece which has, for some time, been offered to the Washington public, has created that remarkable degree of excitement which has attended the production, at the Canterbury, of the "French Spy; or, the Storming of Aligiers," with Miss Louisa Wells in the principal role; the houses having been crowded every night, and the sudiences of the most enthusiastic kind. It will be performed to-night for the last time, as it must give way to other nov-or the last time, as it must give way to other no ities. Among other attractions, singing, dat allets, buriesques, &s., the singing of Miss frent alone is worth the price of admission.

WHO WILL BE CURED!—We desire to call special attention to the advertisement of the celebrated Dr. valing, which appears in another column.
